

Join us for a fun & fascinating journey through Pontiac's past.

Historic
OAK HILL CEMETERY WALK

PRESENTS

RAIN OR SHINE

Prosperity & Prohibition
PONTIAC IN THE

ROARING TWENTIES

$15
PER PERSON
*

SUNDAY, 9.20.2020
2:00, 3:00 & 4:00 PM Tours

EVENT ENTRANCE and FREE PARKING LOCATED AT:
Oak Hill Cemetery
216 University Dr. • Pontiac, MI
near Downtown Pontiac between Paddock & Woodward

*Musical Rummer
Again Is In Jail*

Pontiac, Feb. 7.—Albert Nelson, 35 years old, who won local fame as the musical bootlegger here last summer, is back in the county jail on a charge of violating the prohibition laws. Nelson, who is a cornetist of exceptional ability, drew crowds of several hundred persons in the lot behind the county jail each night while he was serving his term during the summer. Streets about the jail also were Limited Merchandise For Sale at End of the Walk featuring Detroit Area Woodturners' crafted items!

MUST KNOWS:

Masks will be mandatory • Hand sanitizer available at ticket table • No refunds due to weather, so bring an umbrella if chance of rain • As ground can be uneven, Walking Shoes recommended.

Proceeds benefit
Oak Hill Cemetery
Restoration Efforts.
We Thank You!

* Due to Covid-19 *
Online Pre-Ticket Sales
strongly recommended:
localhop.com

For More Information or to Volunteer, email:
office@ocphs.org or call: 248.338.6732

Like us & visit facebook/oaklandhistorycenter often for details & updates