"IT IS WITH LIFE AS WITH A PLAY . . .

S. VIRGINIA McDERMET

This Quiver is a memorial to one we have all known and loved. We dedicate this small part of our lives to our "Miss Mac" who gave so much of her life to us.

Faculty Emeritus

HAZEL ALLCHIN

Miss Hazel Allchin has been a member of our faculty since 1923. She is retiring this June after spending many successful and happy years teaching geometry, trigonometry, and algebra. Miss Allchin has always enjoyed working with high-school young people. Before coming to Pontiac she was principal of Williamston and Northville high schools. She attended Michigan State Normal College where she received her bachelor's degree and Columbia University where she got her master's degree. Miss Allchin started Pontiac High's girl reserve group which has become the Y-Teens. In the future Miss Allchin plans to make her home in Webberville with her sister.

CLARA GAYLORD

Miss Clara Gaylord, who retired this year, had been teaching the art of sewing for thirty years in the big brick teepee. She attended Michigan State College and then taught for a few years in her home town of Cheboygan. Following that she went to Honolulu where she taught at the Kamehameha Girl's School. When she returned to the United States, she did welfare work for the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company in Birmingham, Alabama. She also did settlement work at Welcome Hall in Buffalo. Pontiac students miss having her among our faculty.

HELEN ANN PARIS

Miss Helen Ann Paris, who retired last summer, had long been a member of our English Department. She is a native of Cleveland, Ohio, and received two degrees from the University of Michigan. Before coming here she taught elsewhere in Michigan and at St. Teresa's University in Winona, Minnesota. Coming to Pontiac in 1925, she has always been an honored member of our faculty. Miss Paris has been chairman of the English Department. She has always enjoyed working with young people and liked especially to teach English VIII. Miss Paris has traveled both in the United States and abroad, and attended Oxford University in England. In the future she plans to live wherever it is best for her health.

ARTHUR SELDEN

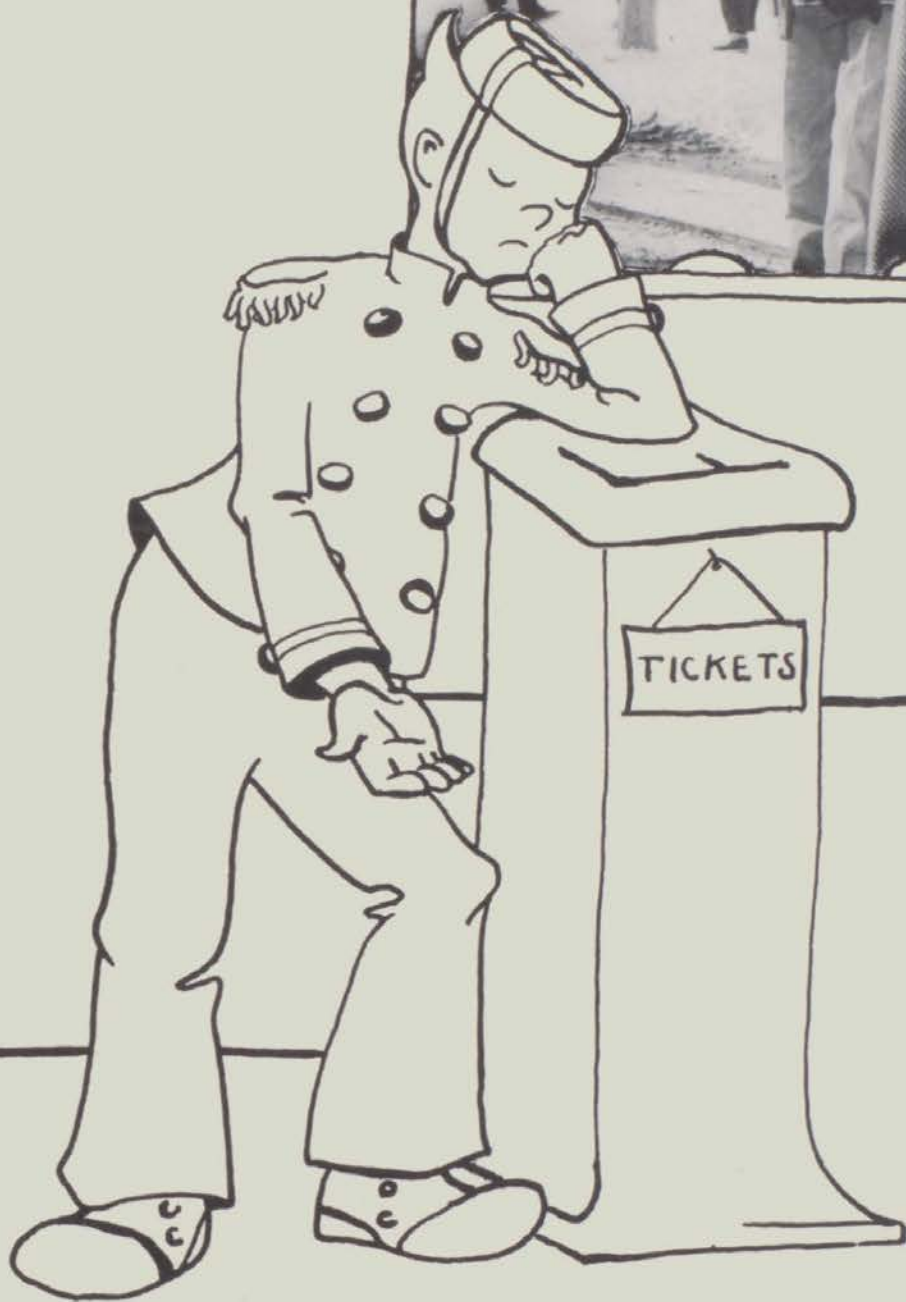

Mr. Arthur Selden, who retires this June, has always been a prominent figure in Pontiac's school system. Growing up in Pontiac, Mr. Selden received his early education here and then attended the University of Michigan. He was principal of three high schools before coming to Pontiac to teach in 1920. He was soon named assistant principal, having charge of the seventh and eighth grades and teaching college history in the junior college here at that time. During this time he was faculty advisor of the QUIVER for four years. When Eastern was opened in 1925, he became principal there and in 1929, when Washington was established, he was made principal there. Returning here in 1948, he now is co-ordinator of secondary social studies along with his work at P. H. S.

ARTHUR SWEET

Mr. Arthur Sweet, who retired last year, had been a member of Pontiac High's Chemistry Department since 1930. Mr. Sweet attended Michigan State Normal College and received his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Michigan. Before coming to P. H. S., he taught in River Rouge and in St. Joseph. While teaching here, Mr. Sweet started the Chem-Physics Club and continued to be faculty advisor of it until his retirement. Mr. Sweet very much enjoyed working with the students, especially those who were particularly interested in chemistry.

J. Bassett puts across her breezy screwball and its strike three for C. Townsend and sore hands for catcher S. Schumacher

Miss Bailey takes one of her classes through muscle developing exercises.

Four sportsters paddle their way through a game of tennis.

Right: The ball goes high as eager players reach for it, but where it lands nobody knows.

Left: Looks close but its really far, far away. L. Davis gets ready to sink a basket.

Right: The girls check their rackets to see who will serve first.

Knees up, chin in, and they guide through a perfect Bent Knee Dolphin.

Dolphinities demonstrate the backstroke.

A pinwheel formation is accomplished by eight P.H.S. swimmers.

Members of the Dolphin Club form a floating star formation.

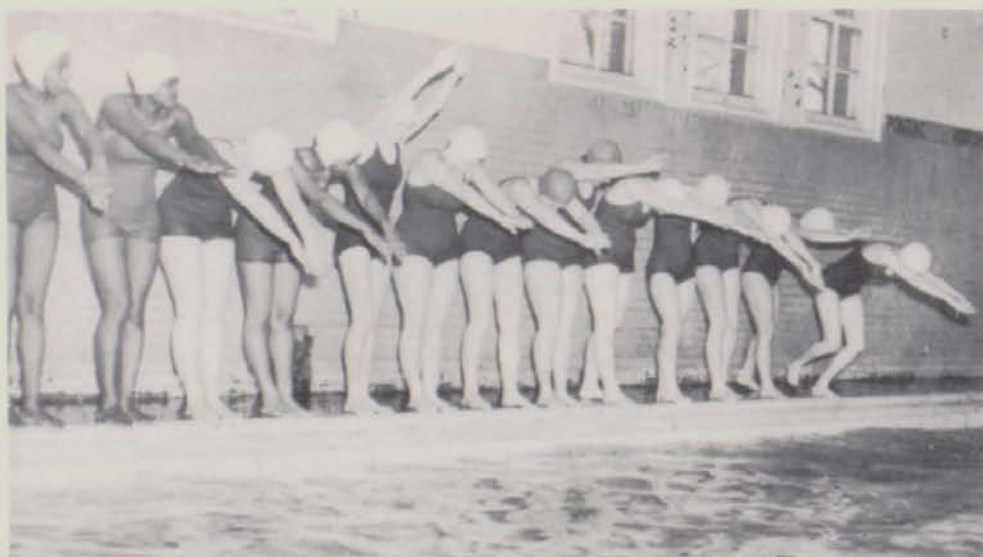

Miss Hutchinson advises a group of swimmers.

The beginners learn to float.

Young mermaids show Mr. Camera just how it is done.

Beginning swimmers cautiously start their dives.

SWIMMING TEAM

Row 2: J. Evans, L. Rockefeller, P. Demberger, F. Cashin, G. Opie, M. Vincent, A. Davenport

Row 3: K. Hoff, D. Charboneau, B. Brabbs, D. Sutter, C. Gieger, J. Irwin, E. McManus, L. MacNutt.

Advisor: Miss Hutchinson

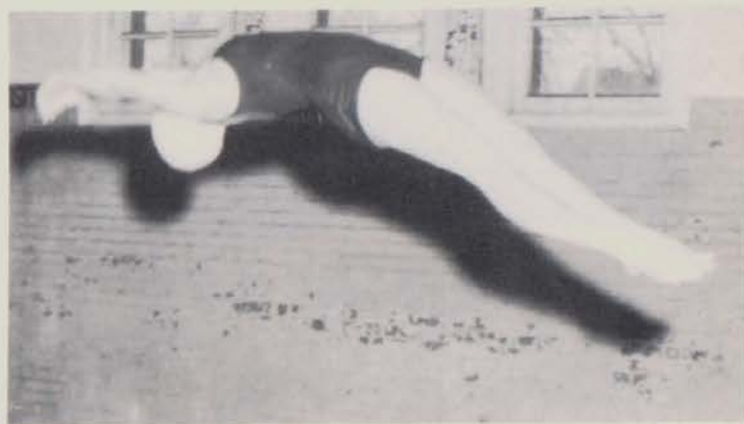

Pat Manning does a beautiful swan dive.

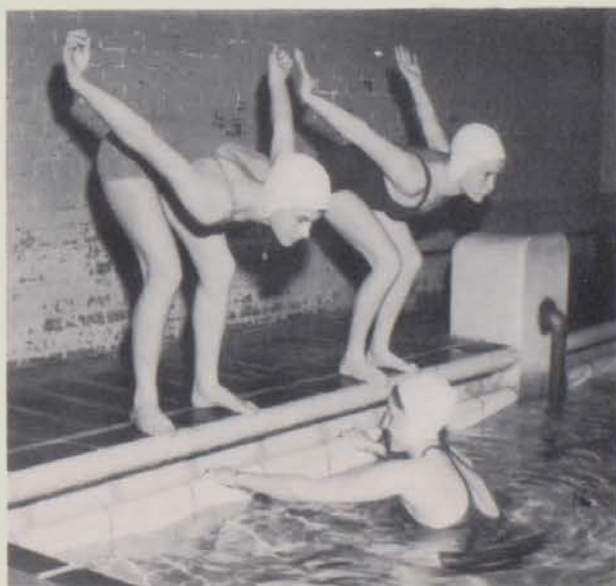

Pat and her shadow make it look as easy as falling off a diving board.

Here is Pat executing a graceful jack-knife.

C. Gieger and M. Crozier stand poised as J. Irwin seems to be saying "One to get ready . . ."

School Daze

Modeling the latest fad in skirts are Beverly Kneale, Barbara Kneale, Dessalee Temple, and Nila Tompkins.

Mrs. Fournier's fifth-hour English class enjoys a movie.

Time out on the steps for a little study is taken by Barbara McSkulin, Carol Geiger, Mary Jo Brannan, and Barbara Burt.

For most high school students, lunch is a favorite past-time.

Cross Country

With five lettermen returning, Pontiac's defending State Champion "harriers" entered into the season's competition with considerable eagerness. Successful dual meet victories extended the Orange and Black streak to 24 straight, covering a period of three and a half years! Rounding out the season our Pontiac boys finished runner-up in the Saginaw Valley Meet, Albion Invitational, and in the State Class "A" Meet.

Though practically all Varsity boys will be lost through graduation, one ray of hope will be carried in by the returning Jr. Varsity team, victor in four dual meets and winner of the Saginaw Valley Jr. Varsity Championship.

Purl Stevens and Mike Ferich jog along.

High School students and other citizens welcome President-Elect Eisenhower to Pontiac.

Jim Wiscombe, Roger Berry, Jack Niggeman, and Jerry Ervin prove that varsity jackets are popular attire for high school students.

Kay Walker, Sarah Poppy, and Judy Wolverton make preparations for the annual Christmas concert.

A busy scene is typical of our school cafeteria during lunch hours.

Miss McDonnall and five January seniors pose for the photographer for the last time before commencement.

Summer School Seniors

June graduates Goldie Palaian and Tom Hunter wave good-bye to two Summer School seniors, Faye Beasley and Rodney Morrill.

Ted Womack and Christine Harrison dream a little about Summer School days.

Warm weather finds Pat DeLano, Jan Fine, Dale Girdler, Kaye Crawley, and Guy O'Berry studying in the fresh air.

Cute June senior Jo McClain under Scotty's able guidance, sweeps a "clean path" for Summer School seniors.

THE 1952-53 DEBATE SEASON

The national high school debate question for this year was "Resolved, that the Atomic Fuel process should form a federal issue." Forty-six students tried out for the debate squad and 20 debaters participated in the debates with other schools.

The season opened with a debate clinic held at the University of Michigan. This was followed by a Saginaw Valley Conference (discussion instrument) in which 11 Port Huron students received "A" ratings. Then six Port Huron debaters teams took part in 48 conference debates spread over four tournaments. In the final conference standing, the Port Huron debaters finished second, winning 23 debates.

In the state elimination rounds the varsity team consisted of Milton Bank, Mary Ann Thomas, Barbara Wiersema, Russell Holland, Duncan McVean, Beverly Wright, and Sanford Smith. At the time of writing these debaters had won their way into the state quarter-finals and had qualified for The Detroit Free Press plaque awarded for excellence in debate.

P.H.S. Goes Camping

The following pictures represent the fun and nature study which P.H.S. students have enjoyed at Sleeper State Park for the past three years. Some of these students have now graduated but will long remember their camping trip.

Could there be a better place for a nature class than out-of-doors?

We study forest protection with actual use of fire-fighting equipment.

We learn about the wonders of nature—a natural tree graft.

While hiking we meet a beekeeper and he shows us the bee hive.

Lunch time on a truck trip around Thumb Area finds us having a cook-out at Grindstone City.

One of our work (and fun) projects is helping to keep our state equipment in good condition.

We helped to build this bridge across a swamp.

During evaluation period every one has a say about that day's work and tomorrow's program.

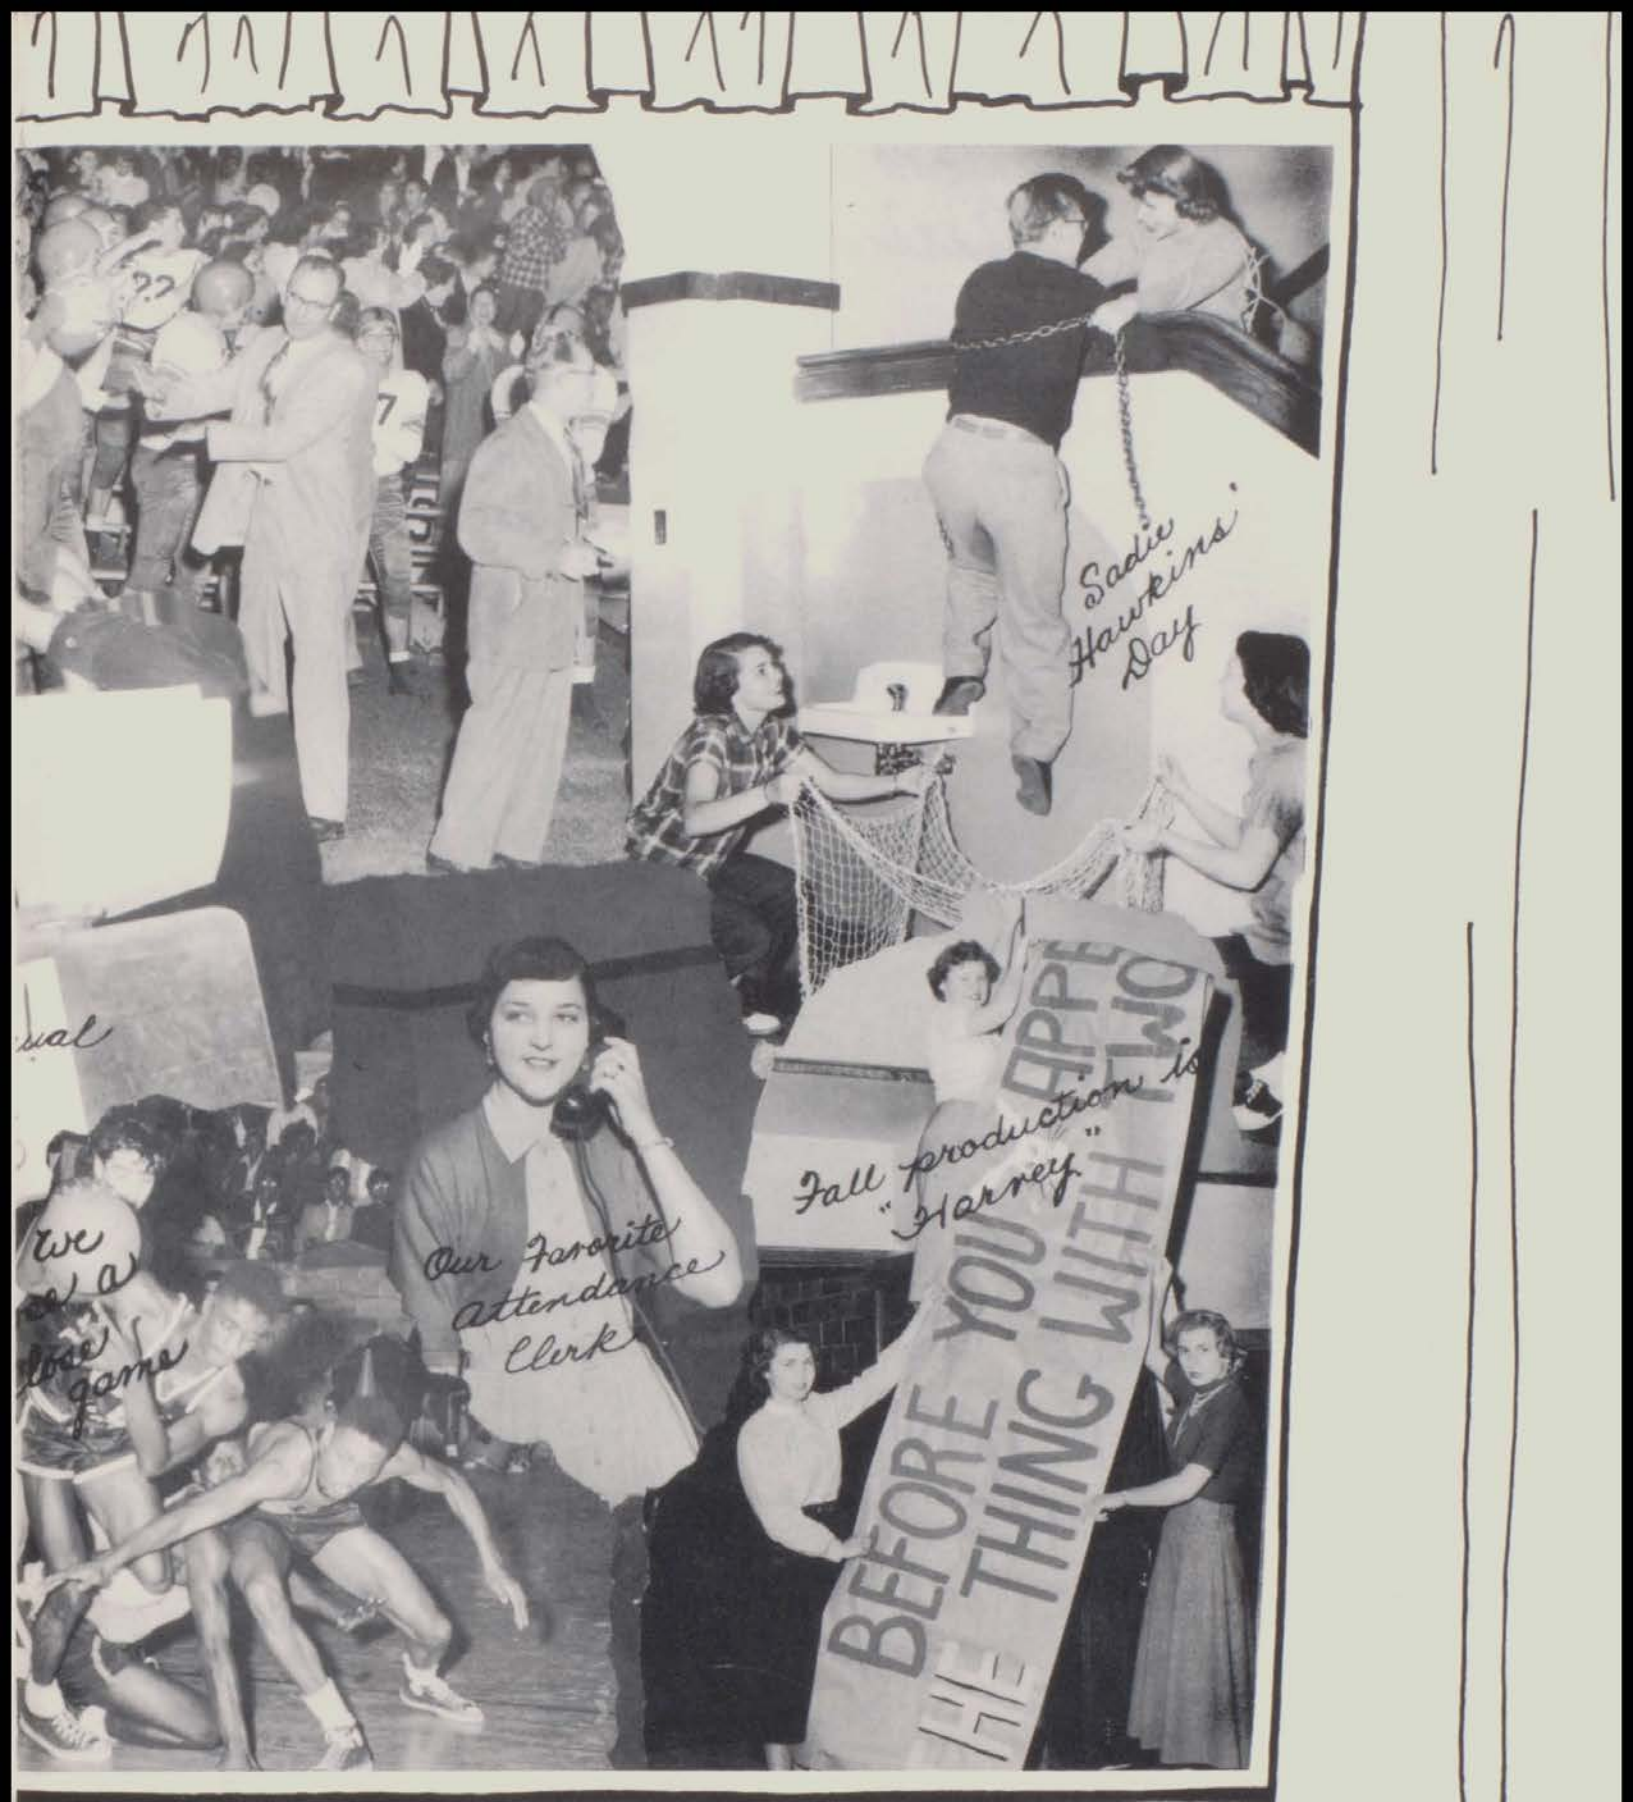

The counselors take part too in the evening entertainment.

One of our greatest experiences is the council fire with Chief Vic.

We thank the members of the office staffs, Mr. Tyrell, Mr. Carlson, Mr. Petersen, Dave Tarr of THE TOMAHAWK, and particularly THE PONTIAC DAILY PRESS for your help in preparing the 1953 QUIVER.
