SENIORSENIORSENIORS

The senior year is a beginning and an end, a confrontation with maturity, a search for responsibility, a compromise between the social and the academic. It is discovery: athletic and intellectual and social, tragic and comic, lyric and epic. The senior year is both end and beginning.

Anteneeban Festival

Homecoming introduces Chief Herman Williams, Princess June Sullivan, and court (kneeling); Jim Webb, Kelly Gerlinger, Jill Dearing and Linda Morse.

The float committee was headed by an enthusiastic Cindy Burke.

Joe Villa and Jobe Post work steadily to complete the float.

Marjy Rosner, Ken Frank, and Edie Payne pool their ideas for decorating the gymnasium for the dance.

Yell leader, Jobe Post magnifies the spirit of homecoming.

The Shiver of Excitement Activity! Enthusiasm! The Bright Vigor of Homecoming Works a Magic Spell Over All Who Play a Part in Anteneeban

The bright vigor of homecoming season was mirrored again in the energetic activities and enthusiasm of students all over the country. Busy hands bent toward decorations; fruitful minds yielding unique ideas; determined boys practicing and perfecting their individual passes or kicks or tackles; stomachs with butterflies, awaiting the results of the homecoming elections; shiny musical instruments, worn by hours of marching and practicing—all pave the way to the final goal—homecoming day.

These preparations are well worth the results—shiny red, Rudolph noses; radiant faces; the crunch of fallen leaves beneath one's feet; the crispness of the wind fluttering pom-poms, the exterior cold counteracted by an interior that is warm with pride and the incense of harvest; the resolute faces of the team and the anxious, capricious expression of the coach; the shiver of excitement and pride as the Chief dances; the boisterous cheers emitting from the exuberant hearts of every student at PCH, instilling enthusiasm and spirit to our team.

Homecoming is a time of overwhelming and heartwarming spirit and pride for our school and football team. Every student is a significant part of this feeling—a significant part of Pontiac Central.

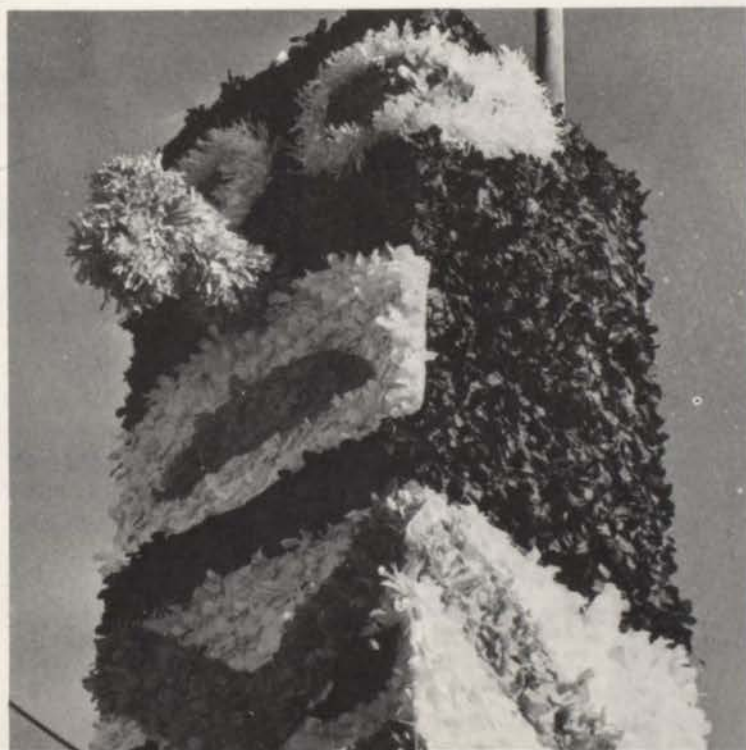

A proud chief, Herman Williams, is the spark that kindles the spirit of homecoming.

Central's Chief, Herman Williams, dances to the rhythm of drums.

The Princess, June Sullivan, is symbolic of Pontiac's Indian heritage.

An Expression of Spirit

Hard driving Art Wiggins cuts the tight corner.

PCH defensive strength holds Flint Central to a slim 6-0 victory.

Pontiac Central
Gridders Engage Valley Opponents

Don Lavalis (31) makes effective use of a good block by Leroy Jackson (60).

Central's team play for the first four games could have been described as primarily defensive. The Chiefs suffered defeats at the hands of five Valley rivals: However, improvement could be detected in the fine defensive play led by All Oakland County tackle Neal Peterson, Leroy Jackson, Tom Howard, and Cedric Patterson. A moral victory was achieved when a highly rated Flint Central team was forced to accept a close 6-0 victory.

The Chiefs first win came against Bay City Handy. Halfback Karl Williams put Central on the scoreboard when he returned a Handy punt, 75 yards, for the games only touchdown, giving PCH a 7-0 victory.

Junior Don Lavalais, running at halfback, sparked the gridders to two more winning efforts. Saginaw and Flint Northern were the unwilling victims of Jerry Murphy and his spirited offense.

Halfback Ken Seay leans away from the opposition.

64 Season: Successful

Senior members of the hard driving Chiefs who deserved recognition were Jim Crump (fullback), Ken Seay (halfback), Art Wiggins (halfback), Jim Gaiter (halfback), Ed Chase (punter and end), Frank Collias (end), Norm Coates (tackle), and Bob Hadden (center).

Before the season could end, winter blasted the Chiefs' gridiron with a snow storm. The night of November 20, with its freezing wind and bloodthirsty band of warriors, spelled doom for the Pontiac Northern gridders.

Beneath that blanket of snow and ice, the Huskies left a tale of woe—for them. The mighty Chiefs sent the Northern pups home to their igloos to lick their wounds and to mourn their 18-0 defeat.

Murphy plus Lavalais equals yardage gained. Don Lavalais scores the winning touchdown against Flint Northern.

Coach Paul Dellerba and Jerry Murphy.

Ken Seay drives for a PCH gain.

Ed Chase puts the pigskin into orbit.

son, John Gordon, Earl Polk, Harold Smith, Ira Jackson, John Hertza, Russ Clinard, Maurice Johnson, and Manager Hershal Owens.

The fast pace of Martin Acosta, Bill Hollis and Bob Wiggins is recorded on Coach Roger Shepler's stop watch.

Hollis Leads PC Harriers

The big three, Bob Wiggins, Bill Hollis, and Martin Acosta, finished 1-2-3 in several meets.

Bill Hollis, a junior, was undefeated in valley meets and placed 24th in the state meet with a time of 10 minutes, 26 seconds.

Senior Bob Wiggins led four juniors and thirteen sophomores to a successful five win—four loss season.

Coach Roger Shepler concluded the season by presenting awards to Joe Dickie, "Rookie of the Year" and Bill Hollis, "Most Improved Harrier."

With five returning varsity letter winners, there are bright prospects of an even better season in 1965.

Determination drives Bill Hollis.

Martin Acosta reaches for distance.

Bill Hollis finishes an undefeated season against Pontiac Northern.

JUNIORSJUNIORSJUNIORS

The junior is half sophomore and half senior, a complication of security and instability, moved by an envy of senior status and driven by the sophomore challenge of his position. His is a year where recognition and approval must become essential elements in his definition of success.

Judy Almas: "You say you want to borrow my bib?"

The Lion has one word to describe the taste of the courage the Wizard gives him to drink, "Eck!!!"

The cowardly Lion explains that his life is simply unbearable without a bit of courage and the Tin Woodman, the Scarecrow, and Dorothy console him.

A Munchkin (Dave Dunlap) and Dorothy speak of the Scarecrow: "He looks just like a man."

The Scarecrow and Dorothy explain to the Soldier (Roger Warren) why they want to see the Wizard.

"But alas, the tinsmith couldn't make me a heart," said the sad Tin Woodman as the sympathetic Scarecrow and Toto listen.

PC Presents The Wizard of Oz

Aunt Em: Where in the world have you been?

Dorothy: In the land of Oz!

Dorothy scolds the Lion for biting Toto as the Tin Woodman and the Scarecrow look on, and the Lion replies, "I wouldn't have tried to bite a real little dog!"

Blown to the Land of Oz by a Kansas cyclone, Dorothy and her little dog, Toto, try to find a way to get back home. Wearing the magic silver slippers which she earned quite unexpectedly, and protected by the kiss of the Good Witch of the North, Dorothy goes in search of the Wizard of Oz, believing that he can send her home. On the way she meets the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman, and the Lion, delightful new friends who join her in seeking the mighty Wizard. After many adventures they meet the Wizard, but not until Dorothy destroys the Wicked Witch of the West does she find a way home.

The Wizard of Oz was presented for the area grade schools in five performances, beginning Monday, November 16, and running through Friday, November 20. There was one evening performance on Saturday, November 21, to which children from the Oakland County Youth Center, Children's Home, and Pontiac State Hospital were invited.

Under the direction of Stuart Packard, the major characters were Lynn Chandler as Dorothy, Donna Glover as Toto, Jim Wood as the Scarecrow, Jim Briney as the Tin Woodman, Alvin Anderson as the Lion, Rob Gordon as the Wizard, and Charlotte Janicki as the Wicked Witch of the West.

No one in the land of Oz is safe from the evil spells of the Wicked Witch of the West.

The mighty Wizard confesses that he has no magic powers, "I am a humbug."

First row: Judy Almas, Diane McCall, Carol Gray, Jill Dearing, Sue Froede, Cindy Gowen and Carole Beckett. Second row: Cecilia Hunt and Linda Jackson. Third row: Jo Johnson, Jobe Post, Suzie Huntzinger, John Baker and Eileen Hatchett.

Advisor Jean Smith and Captain Jill Dearing.

We've got the Spirit!

One of the more memorable sounds echoing through the halls of PCHS is that of the cheer-leading squad. Sponsored by Jean Smith, this group of twelve enthusiastic girls and two boys have performed at football and basketball games and at pep assemblies.

Although a major portion of their energy is taken up by leading cheers at games and staging humorous pep assemblies, the members also take part in many other activities to encourage spirit and improve inter-school relations. Last summer the squad attended Camp-All American for a week, learning new cheers and exchanging ideas with other squads.

One of the major projects this year was the sale of swim, basketball and wrestling team buttons. On each button was a photograph of the respective teams. Other non-profit projects include the selling of headbands, ribbons and orange and black bow ties.

Central Chiefs Continue their Domination of District Basketball

The PCH cagers have kept their tradition of not following predictions. To many, including Coach Fred Zittle, this should have been a season of rebuilding.

The squad consisted of only five seniors, backed up by six juniors and one surprising sophomore, Cliff Benson.

Carl Arnold and Jim McClendon were the back court mainstays while John Hooper, Jesse Evans and Willie Adams held down the front line.

An inter-city rivalry with Pontiac Northern continued with three contests in favor of the Chiefs. The over-all record is now 14 wins for Central and only two for Northern.

The mighty Chiefs completed an admirable 15-4 season, highlighted by a district championship and an upset over second ranked Hamtramck.

The back court play of guard Jim McClendon contributed to Central's well rounded attack.

John Hooper pulled down a good many rebounds and kept Central in the game at both ends of the court.

A scrapper under the boards, Willie Adams never considered giving less than 100% all the time.

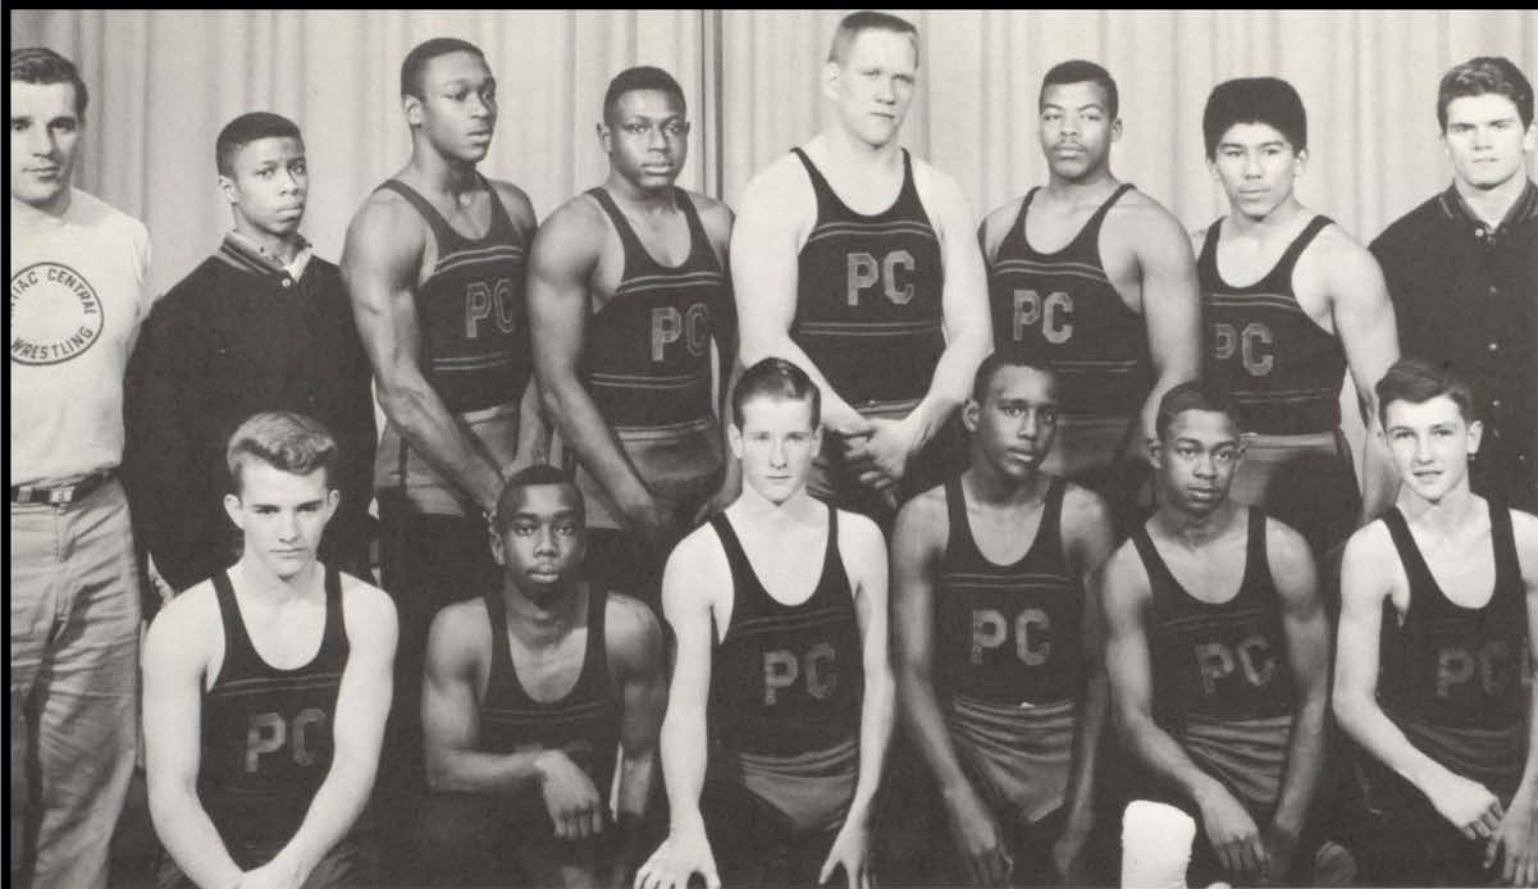

Clifford Benson, sophomore sensation in 65.

Leading scorer, Carl Arnold, at five feet, eight inches, was often the biggest man on the floor.

A ball hawk and quick as a cat, Jessie Evans starred on defense and hit in double figures.

Mighty Matmen Boast 8 Wins

PCH matmen boast of one of the best season records in dual meets. Under the direction of varsity coach Steve Szabo and JV coach Micheal Kenney, the grapplers came through their season with 8 wins and 4 losses.

During the Christmas Tournament the Chiefs placed 5th in a class of 18 schools. In the tough competition of the Quadrangular meet, the PCH mat squad finished third.

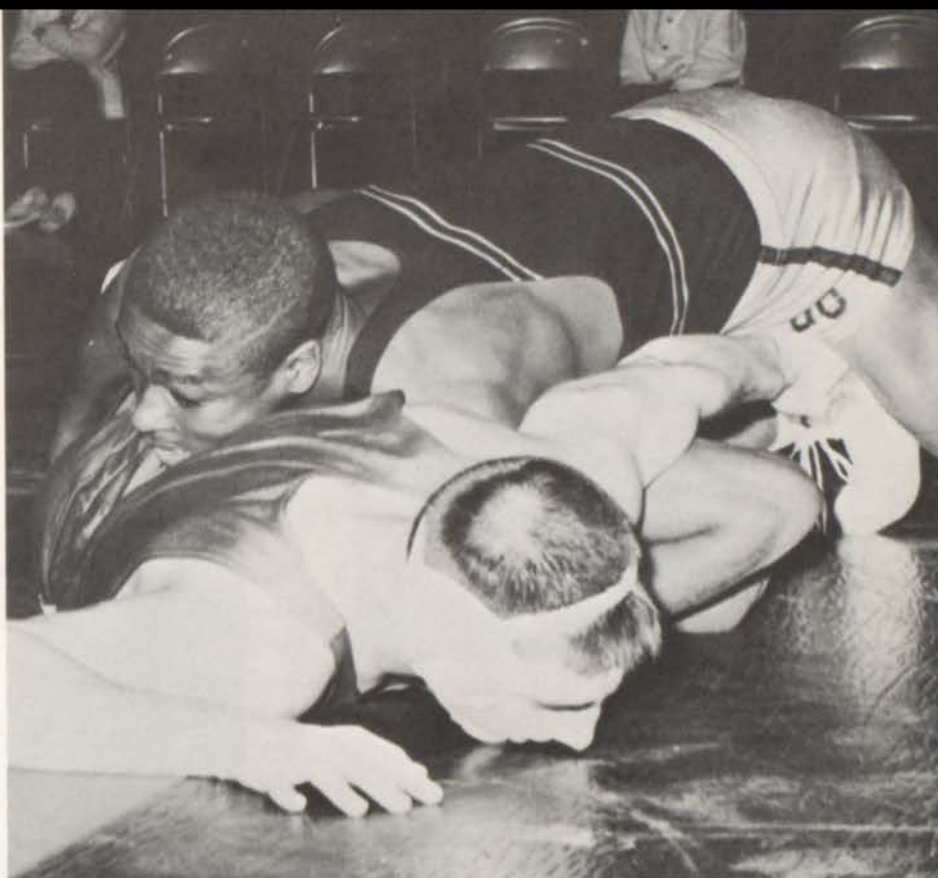

Bringing victories to the squad throughout the season were: Clarence Thompson (15-4), Reuben Rice (10-4), John Cato (13-4), Dan Rodriguez (14-3), Nathaniel Carr (11-7), Bill Hollis (11-5), and Neal Peterson finishing with a 17-2 record.

Bill Paulson acquires valuable "riding time."

Nators Swim Through Year of Rebuilding

Finishing with a 2-14 record in dual meets did not sink the Nators. Leading the swim team in overall points were two seniors, captain Ed Chase and Don Miller.

Blue is only the color of the water, according to the Nators, for they have "high hopes" for next year. Essential to their plans for the coming season are: Tom Howard (back-stroke), Bob Reiter (freestyle), Tom Phillips (freestyle), Bill Kimmins (breaststroke), and Ken Frank and Norm LaMotte, both divers.

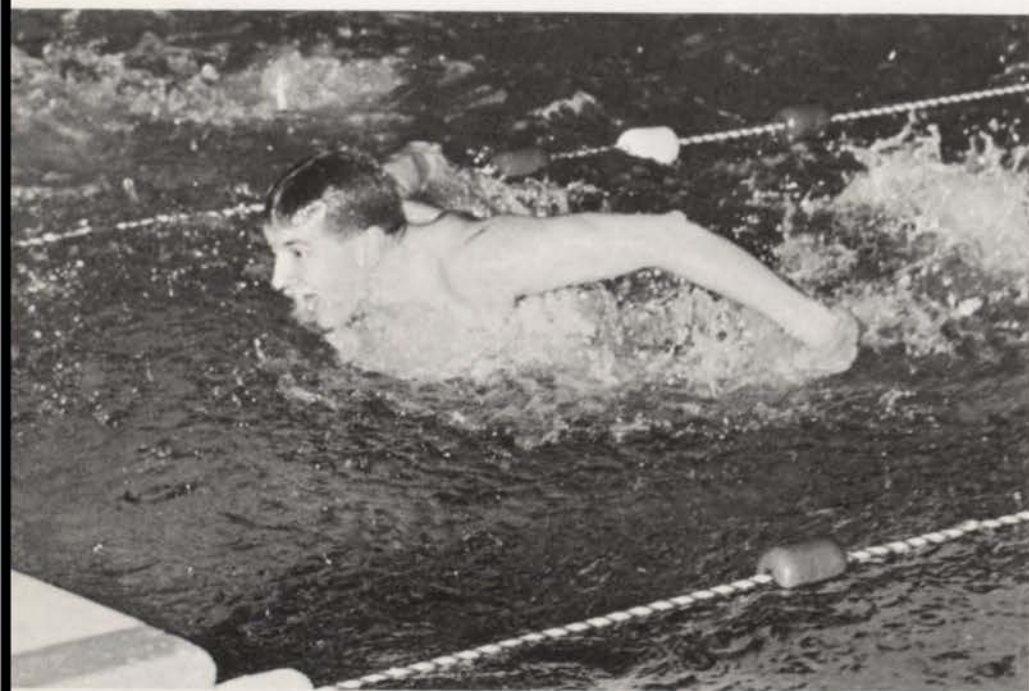

Completing their last season with the Nators are Ed Chase, Bill Kimball, Dennis Acre, Dave Shadley, Don Miller and Dave Carney.

The Sound of Music

The Sound of Music is set in Austria in 1938. It is the warm story of Maria Rainer, a postulant from the Nonnberg Abbey. Maria, full of the joy of living, finds great difficulty in adjusting to life in a convent. She enters the home of Captain von Trapp to be governess to his seven, motherless children.

She soon wins the affection of the children with her warm, gentle ways and the songs she teaches them to sing; she also wins the love of their father. Eventually, Maria leaves the convent to marry Captain von Trapp. But their happy marriage is soon shadowed by the Nazi take-over of Austria. Not wanting to serve under Hitler, Captain von Trapp takes his family and flees from Nazi persecution to the mountains of Austria.

Elsa Schraeder (Judy Gordon) while singing "How Can Love Survive" asks Captain von Trapp, "How can I show what I feel for you? I can not go out and steal for you."

After an exhaustive rehearsal Jo Lynn Yansen, Edie Payne and Roger Putnam sit down to take a breather and think of ways in which they can improve the portrayal of their parts.

Max Detweiler (Gary Rosenthal) asks Elsa Schraeder (Carole Beckett), "Elsa, have you made up Georg's mind yet? Is he going to marry you?" Elsa replies, "Oh, yes! He (Captain von Trapp) hasn't admitted it yet. There seems to be something standing in his way."

Much of the charm of The Sound of Music is due to the Children's songs. Renee Relyea, Elaine Bacow and Kristine Lindquist, who portray Gretl, Marta and Louisa, respectively, practice the song "Do, Re, Mi."

Having roles in the musical isn't all fun as Carole Beckett, Gary Rosenthal and Nathan Jones find out when they receive helpful criticism.

The Sound of Music

The students, under the direction of Stuart Packard, portrayed their parts with care and skill. The cast included; Maria, Edie Payne and Connie Vanderlind; Mother Abbess, Karen Lane and Evelyn Alderson; Captain von Trapp, Roger Putnam and Nathan Jones. The von Trapp children were: Leisl, Janet Goldman and Jo Lynn Yansen; Friedrich, Dan Hoffmeister; Louisa, Kristine Lindquist; Kurt, David Dunlap; Brigitta, Sue Huntzinger; Marta, Elaine Baccow; Gretl, Renee Relyea; Elsa Schraeder, Judy Gordon and Carole Beckett; and Max Detweiler, Mark Papazian and Gary Rosenthal.

The song, sung under the direction of Michael Dempsey, were "The Sound of Music," "My Favorite Things," "Edelweiss," "Do, Re, Mi," "How Do You Solve a Problem Like Maria?", "Climb Every Mountain," "So Long, Farewell," "Sixteen, Going on Seventeen," "Lonely Goatherd," "How Can Love Survive," "No Way To Stop It," and "Ordinary Couple."

After a strenuous routine of rehearsals and matinees, the evening productions were presented by cast A on April 2 and 10 and cast B on April 3 and 9. The student director assisting Mr. Packard and Mr. Dempsey was Sue Moore.

When Rolf Gruber (Jim Briney) asks Leisl (Jo Lynn Yansen) how old she is, she replies, "Sixteen—what's wrong with that?," inspiring the song, "Sixteen, Going on Seventeen," which talks about the problems of growing up.

(above) Mary Worthy designed the program covers for The Sound of Music. Jones Climaxes Season, Breaks Record

By Chuck Williams

Those fabulous Chiefs have done it again. The all mighty PHS this Saturday compiled a total of 61 points to win their second straight state championship Saturday at Ann Arbor.

Led by greatest track standout ever to come out of PHS, Hayes Jones, the Chiefs were able to score in 10 of 13 events, and take 6 first places.

This was the last and final meet for the majority of a team which many experts call the finest high school track team ever developed in the state of Michigan.

Jones climaxed a fantastic season with victories in the 120 yd. high hurdles; breaking his own state record set last year with a time of 14.2 seconds, the 180 yd. low hurdles, with a time of 19.4 seconds, the broad jump with an unprecedented leap of 23 feet 8 7/8 inches, never before accomplished in the State of Michigan. And he topped it all off by running the first 220 yards of the relay in 22 seconds.

However, Jones wasn't the only standout in the meet; the whole PHS team functioned as it has never functioned before. Almost every play that made the trip managed to add to the 61 points that gave the Chief the final victory.

These boys brought home the six first places awarded to finest team Pontiac has ever known: Hayes Jones in the 120 yard high hurdle, the 180 yard low hurdles, and the broad jump. Bill Douglas in the 880 yard run with a time of 1:59. Hodson Ray in the high jump with a leap of 6 ft. 3 7/8 inches. The PHS relay team composed of Jones, Shorter, Brooks and Spann, who covered the distance of 1:31.9.

There were also many other boys who added to Pontiac's fabulous

From 1960 to 1964 Hayes Jones accomplished a string of 56 straight victories in the high hurdles. Of the eighteen major meets held annually in the United States, Hayes holds meet records in thirteen and is co-holder in five. He holds world records in three distances: 50, 60, and 70 yards. Furthermore, he is co-holder at the 45 yard distance. Certainly, Hayes Jones is one of the outstanding hurdlers in track history. At this writing, he is the only man to break seven seconds (6.8) in the most common hurdle distance of 60 yards.

Pontiac Salutes Olympic Champ—Hayes Jones

Olympic champion Hayes Jones presented his gold medal to the youth of Pontiac at the "Salute to Youth" rally held in November at Pontiac Northern High School. Jones won first place in the 110-meter hurdles held at the 1964 World Olympics in Tokyo. Accepting the hard-earned award on behalf of the youth of the City of Pontiac was Mayor William H. Taylor, Jr.

In accepting, Mayor Taylor stated that the medal would be displayed in City Hall where it would be kept in trust for Hayes. It must be said that Hayes Jones has won first place with the citizens of Pontiac.

Dolphins Display of History

"One if by land, two if by sea." Sue Turner and Jean Livingstone.

We regret that we have but two Dolphons to give for our country: Kathy Devereux and Mary Jo Meyers.

The Dolphins, having delved into the past, presented scenes from our dynamic history, some of which were Indians, Civil War, Gold Rush, Keystone Cops, Flappers, Gangsters, United Nations, and the Alaskan and Hawaiian Statehood. The Dolphin presentation was the climax of a season's hard work and diligent practice.

Other than stressing preparations for the annual show in April, the Dolphins found time to attend clinics at Michigan State University and the University of Michigan. Methods of costuming, deckwork, stunts, narration, organization of numbers and theme ideas were taught.

IBM Scheduling Highlights Central's "Forward Look"

Keeping accurate accounts of attendance and scholarship and the promotion of health and safety are two of several significant duties performed by the PCHS administration.

Recently added to reduce time consuming "busy work" during the scheduling of programs, IBM machines have become representative of the "forward look" in Pontiac Central's approach to education.

Furthermore, a report is now being prepared under Francis Staley's direction, which will evaluate the school's present teaching methods and facilities. It also will recommend necessary changes and addition of facilities and equipment.

A pause from routine is enjoyed by secretaries Pat Byers(main office), Dorothy Reene (Donald McMillen's office), Betty Pillow(main office) and Margaret Lowry(attendance office).

Victor Lindquist discusses a common scheduling problem, more students than chairs, with Francis Staley.

A meeting of the various committee chairman: Elsie Best (English), Doris Haynes (library), Bertha Stevens (business), Roland Hallquist (social studies), Roy Gallipo (trade and industrial), Stuart Choate (mathematics), David Siple (science), and Frances Martz (foreign language), directed by Victor Lindquist, prepare recommendations for the future needs of the school.

To Counsel . . . To Guide . . . To Lead . . . To Conduct . . .

George Beebe confers with counselor, Richard Tilwick, to plan next semester's schedule.

Many and varied are the duties of the PCH counselors. The scheduling of over 2000 students, an exhaustive job, has been lightened by the use of IBM computers.

Other tasks performed are guiding students in the many phases of scholastic and social life, sponsoring scholastic aptitude tests and keeping follow-up records on students after graduation from high school.

An improvement to the department is the addition of a placement office. "Since sixty per cent of the graduates from Central go straight into employment, this should be a tremendous help," says assistant principal, Donald McMillen.

English in Action

English classes learn correct library procedure from librarian Doris Haynes.

The English Department, under the direction of Elise Best, directs its instruction to individual needs. This is accomplished through a two-track system consisting of college preparatory and general English curriculums.

The college preparatory courses emphasize the literature of America and England and also include work in grammar and composition. World literature is the latest addition.

Students in general English classes are drilled in grammar and are taught to evaluate and appreciate popular literature. Basic skills of communication are stressed.

To more fully meet the needs of its students, the department is undergoing a change in teaching procedures. Hopeful additions are courses in speed reading and reading comprehension, as well as new projectors, films, records and record players.

Library Workshops Stress Skills

Under the direction of Doris Haynes, head librarian, workshops are conducted which enable sophomores to acquire certain library skills. The workshops stress library science as a key to a liberal education.

Keeping student requests in mind, Miss Haynes and Judith Weese select 150 new books each month, providing PCH students with an abundant supply of academic entertainment.

The Audio Visual Club, under the direction of Judy Taeger, is a school service organization. Selected on the basis of previous audio visual experience and training in junior high school, members use their study hall periods to show movies to various classes, and to transport audio visual equipment.

A full-length movie, sponsored by the PTA, was presented by the club.

The officers this year included Keith Johnston as president, Joe Villa as vice president, and Carol Burke as secretary-treasurer.

Mock National Election Held in November

Election sponsors, Roland Hallquist and Fred Zittle.

"To stimulate evaluation of the past, the printed page, human relation, and education as a continuing process" is the goal of Pontiac Central as stated in its philosophy of education. The Social Studies Department, directed by Roland Hallquist, reflects this philosophy.

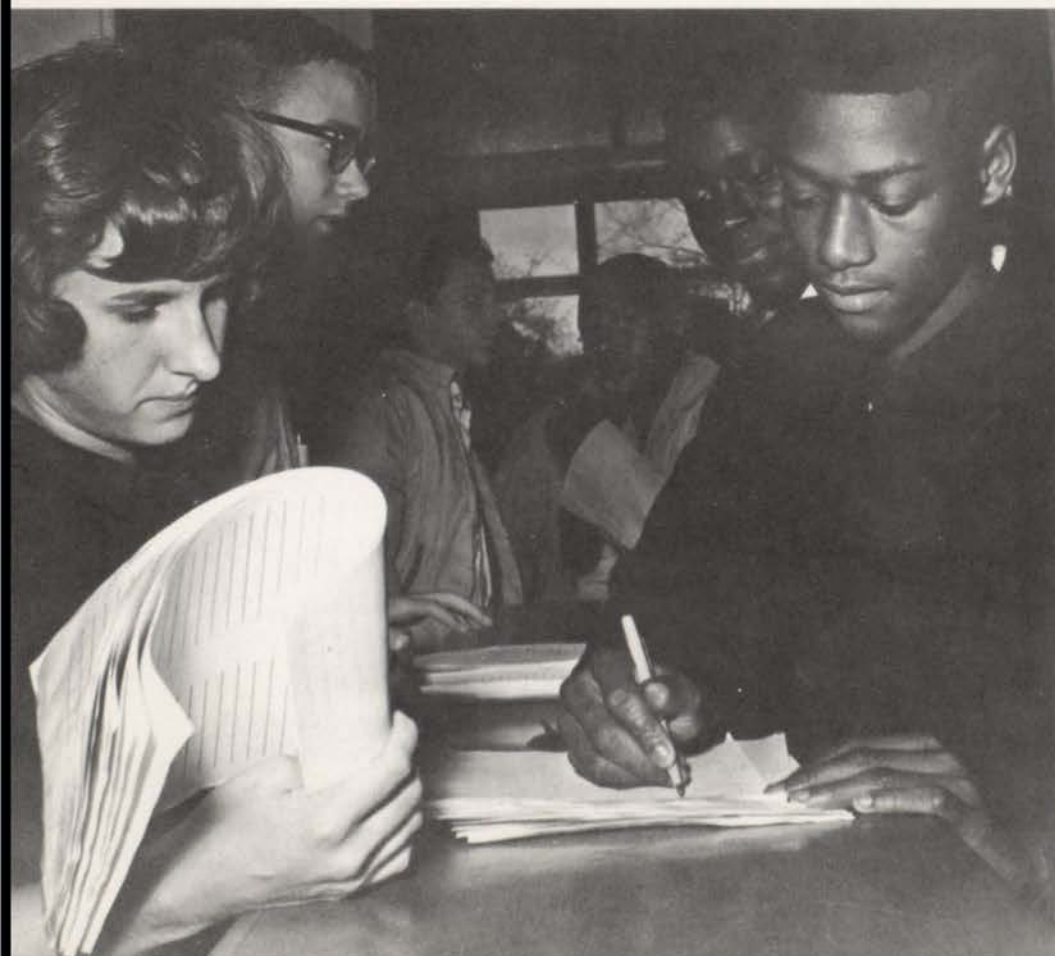

This year's student body had the opportunity to practice voting procedures and to evaluate voting trends when they participated in a mock, national election. For the first time, the highest percentage of votes came from the junior class.

Several students also acquired an understanding of the United Nations when they attended the Michigan United Nations at Hillsdale College.

Language Arts Continues to Meet Needs of Students

Students acquire self-assurance, technique and polish through the speech and dramatics classes of Stuart Packard and Walter Smith.

In the dramatics and radio speech classes, directed by Mr. Packard, individual performance is emphasized. The advanced classes learn production aspects, backstage techniques and the historical background of the theater.

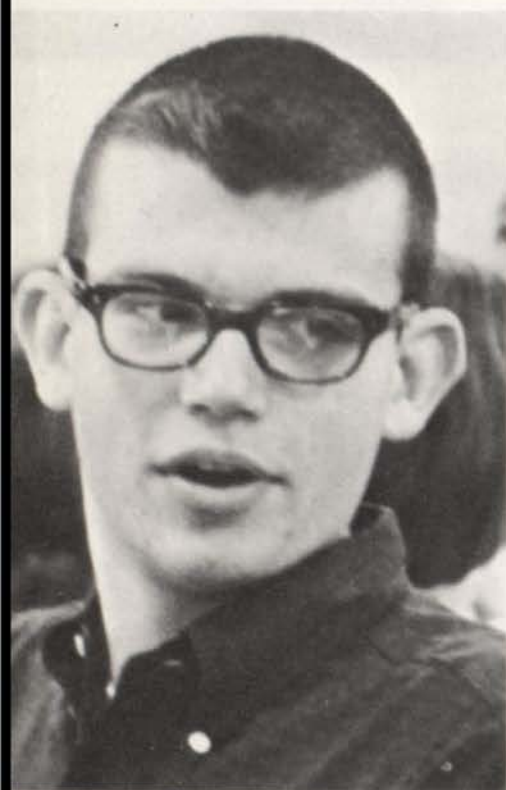

Mr. Smith's speech and debate classes are taught parliamentary procedure and the fundamentals of public speaking. Promising students are chosen for forensics and debate.

Under the supervision of department head Francis Martz, conversation is stressed in these courses to encourage fluency in daily speech requirements. Newly aquired textbooks also emphasize conversation.

Service to School, Community

The music department offers a program appealing to varied interests, with classes ranging from theory to band. Music reading is stressed in most of the courses.

Many classes are designed to prepare students to perform at nearby schools, civic clubs and hospitals.

The groups also attend area competition. Depending upon their performance there, they may later enter state competition. Outstanding individual musicians are awarded Interlocken scholarships.

Artistic Endeavor Aroused

Interest and creativity in art are aroused in many students through the efforts of John Allshouse and Jean Smith. Their department is divided into two basic parts.

The general art courses are provided for those who wish to dabble in sketching and basic design.

The more advanced art courses instruct those who are interested in making art a lifetime occupation by encouraging individual research and improvement in freehand and design skills.

Another addition is Notehand, which is essential to college preparatory students who will be required to take complete and accurate notes during their college career.

Other areas of learning stressed are typing, office computations with keypunch, shorthand, and marketing.

A Contribution to Skilled Labor

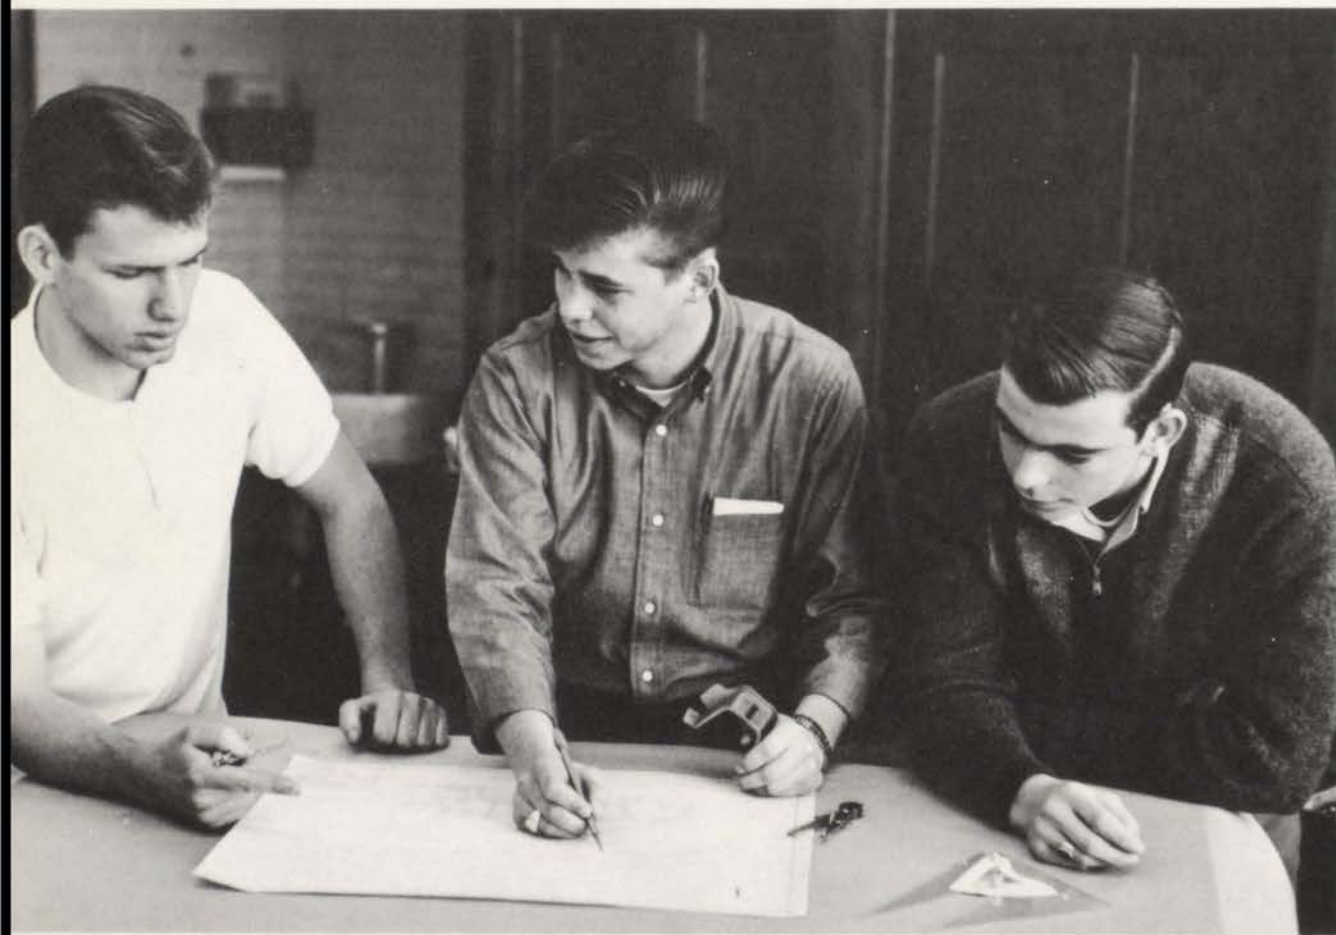

"We hope that we can train the individual to be successful in the world of work and to be an effective citizen," states Trade and Industrial Department head, Donald Kaiser.

Because of the large number of students who must find employment upon graduation from high school, courses such as welding, drafting, basic electronics, auto mechanics, machine shop, and printing are particularly emphasized.

For the student who plans on continuing his education, the department offers electronics and architectural drawing.

Printing programs, schedules, and the T-hawk give valuable experience to Walter Elam and Willie Ringstaff.

Harold Parks, Kurt Lightfoot and Duane Ellsworth were winners in the American Society of Body Engineers' eleventh annual drafting contest.

Stuart Choate, new to Pontiac Central, heads a department which includes courses ranging from general math to trigonometry and functions.

Three new teachers have also been added to the department. They are Eleanor Carte, James Parker and Kenneth Stevenson.

Dedicated to a Safety Conscious Community

The driver education course encourages students to respect law and accept responsibility. Through practice on the driving range and in classroom study, students are given a basic education in car operation and traffic regulations.

Personal attitude plays a most important part in becoming a good driver. "Young drivers with a poor attitude toward school and life in general will carry this attitude into their driving," explains driver education department head, Dean Wilson. Students who develop good driving habits and attitudes, now, will eventually contribute to a more safety conscious community.

Instruction and Experience: Co-op

Cooperative training affords the student the opportunity to put formal, in-school instruction to practical use. The student is employed on a part-time basis and is paid according to the wage scale for beginning employees. Work is closely supervised by the employer and the school coordinator. In addition to the instruction and experience received on the job, these students receive in-school instruction in subjects closely related to the work done on the job. Students receive regular credit each semester and must spend a minimum of fifteen hours per week on the job. Students who participate in this cooperative, on-the-job training program receive practical experience that cannot be provided in the school.

Editor's Backword

A year ends, a year filled with hope, inspiration, pride and joy. Because the year must not be lost or forgotten, Pontiac Central, 64-65 has been recorded.

It would not have been possible or worthwhile without the combined efforts of those who have dedicated themselves to this year and to better yearbooks.

A special thanks to our photographers, Richard Marker and Randy Seiss; to our editors Sonja Bedford, Art Byers, Cindy Gowen, Nancy Hefner, Jo Johnson, Carol Johnston, Linda Lawrence, Kay Madsen, Marilyn Mihay, Sally Stark, Connie Vanderlind, and Mary Worthy; to the unsung heroes of the ad. and copy staffs; to our advisor, Ken Brown; and to the teachers who condoned and understood our "enthusiastic" behavior.

May we also thank Francis Staley and his administration, Ted Carlson and the printshop, the Tomahawk staff, the Pontiac Press, Lyndon School Studios, Storer-Spellman Studios, and Harry Stuldreher of Edwards Brothers.

Sue Cox, Editor-in-Chief
