THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1965

Pontiac, Michigan

THE CLASS OF '65

of

SAINT MICHAEL HIGH SCHOOL

dedicates

THE JUNE MICHAELITE

to their Principal

Mother M. Maura, S.S.J.

on the occasion of her completion

of

SIX YEARS OF SERVICE

in

Saint Michael's School

Mother Maura is leaving Saint Michael's. That her talents are needed elsewhere-we do not question-but we know that she will be sorely missed.

Mother Maura has proved her worth in the burdensome office of Principal. In a position that requires constant attention to innumerable details, she has employed her God-given talents well.

Her influence has filtered through all the class rooms and she leaves a deep and lasting imprint on the faculty and students of Saint Michael's.

May she now write a new chapter of successful accomplishment in her continued service to God and her fellow man.
